ELECTRIC STRIKES DEATH, DESTRUCTION

CHIEF IS KILLED; PROPERTY FREDERICK IN NOVA SCOTIA

Many Narrowly Escape As Lightning Flashes Close,
Six Buildings Burn After Bolts Strike.

TRURO, N.S., July 17.—Something akin to terror reigned along the business section of Truro street during the violent electrical storm Monday, when it was learned that a car carrying three cases of dynamite, fuses and caps for detonation, was parked at the outskirts of town for safety. The driver explained the explosives were to be delivered to a gold mine in Gaspere county.

HALIFAX, July 17.—A terrific electric storm cracked along the mainland of Nova Scotia Monday, leaving a trail of death and destruction in its wake.

Four-year-old Johnny Lartey was instantly killed by a lightning bolt at Tufts Cove, while many other persons were injured in various parts of the province and at least six buildings were destroyed after being struck by lightning.

FALLS DEAD
The Lartey child was playing near his parents' home at Tufts Cove when the storm broke. He was struck by a lightning bolt, but just then lightning struck a tree beside him and he fell dead. A woman in the Tufts Cove district was slightly injured.

At Stewieville a bolt ripped through the home of Vincent Murray, wounding three children before it passed under the door to the yard.

Three men working in a lumber yard at Bedford were knocked unconscious.

$100,000 RAIN
A million-dollar rain however accompanied the electrical storm, reversing orchards and field crops that had been parched during several weeks of drought.

While the storm killed a child, injured 11 other persons and destroyed six buildings, the rain needed moisture to a wide area of land and agriculture from financial failure.

The rain was worth hundreds of thousands of dollars to the Annapolis valley alone, where the fall of 1.28 inches was just half an inch short of the total rainfall of 2.76 inches since the first of May, according to records at the Agricultural Experimental Station at Kentville.

C.N. Hotel Chief
Notes Increase in Volume Of Travel

WINNIPEG, July 17.—"We note in our hotels a much greater volume of travel this year than last and a particularly pleasing feature is the increased number of bookings for our summer hotels," declared Mr. Joe Van Wyck, general manager of Canadian National hotel system, who is a visitor at the Port. Gerry Hotel.

Wyck spent the week end inspecting the conditions at the hotels and will proceed on his western inspection tour on Tuesday morning, accompanied by company hotels at Edmonton and Jasper.

Mr. Van Wyck is especially noticeable and our bookings to the end of the season are greater than at any time since 1929. We are looking forward to the greatest of our recent record for our Toronto golf week, which was held during the week of August 20 and 21.

"We are also very pleased with the reception accorded to the guests of Minnik Lodge. This place has always been a most popular vacation resort. Business has improved generally at our hotels in Winnipeg."

Port Arthur, Brandon, Edmonton during the last few months and he looks forward with more confidence than for a considerable time past," said Mr. Van Wyck, who is very well known in Western Canada.

DROUGHT HITS SOUTH STATES

PORT SMITH, Ark., July 17.—The southwest presented a desolate aspect last night as a drought of 30 to 70 days' duration lay, settled crops and cut deeply into water supplies over a five state area.

Western Arkansas recorded a season record of 106 degrees Monday—the hottest since Aug. 7, 1930.

150 Boys Will
See Exhibits Free

On Wednesday evening 150 boys will see the Exhibition free.

The Association announced yesterday that it will require the services of this many boys between 14 and 18 years of age to lead horses or cattle in the live stock parade on Wednesday evening. Applicants should assemble outside the Alberta Avenue gate at 6 o'clock on Wednesday evening. Every boy accepted to lead an animal in this parade will be given a free ticket to admission to the grand stand. Here's a chance for 150 boys of from 14 to 18 years of age to see the Exhibition free.

S. F. STRIKE IS BLAMED UPON COMMUNISTS

General Uprising Cannot Be Won Say Bay City
Newspapers

SAN FRANCISCO, July 17.—Leading newspapers of San Francisco Bay cities were unanimous today in predicting a general strike could not be won and blaming its inception on Communist elements.

Here is what they said: San Francisco Chronicle—"The issue in this general strike is clear cut. It is a battle of the Communists, the medium of organized labor and for the destruction of constituted government."

The San Francisco Examiner—"They could not win a general strike—even if they knew what they are striking for. No community—least of all the United States—can be won by force."

It is reported that Sir Henry Pollett, former financier of note, and once owner of the famous Pollett estate in Toronto, will renounce his title if bankruptcy proceedings are carried out against him. Sir Henry feels that he would be honor bound to make this move, although there is no regulation or custom to compel him to make such a move.

Television Show
Slightly Delayed

Managing Director Abbott of the Edmonton Exhibition announces that the Television Show is unfortunately held up, waiting for equipment. On Sunday the Television Show arrived in Edmonton with the equipment that was used at the Calgary Exhibition for several days and a number of tests have been made before opening this show to the public, but these tests have proven unsatisfactory. Further tests will be carried out after the arrival of the required equipment, and public announcement will be made in the press.

GERMANY FIXES WHEAT PRICES

BERLIN, July 17.—High prices were fixed for wheat and rye today as the German government took over complete control of grain from the time of harvest until they pass through the bakery.

Bread prices, however, will be held at the same level. The new plan was frank recognition of the poor crop yield and the possibility of a food shortage, due largely to drought.

ASKED FOR MONEY

Louis Hamilton, of Calgary, testified he saw accused, and talked with him at Murdy's house in Calgary on June 11 or 12. Accused had come from Millie Ann Wetaskiwe, he said, and asked Mrs. Murdy for some money. She gave him a dollar.

Witness identified clothes worn by accused, blue pants, a white shirt and yellow sweater.

Mrs. Frances Murdy said accused was at her house on June 11 or 12 stating he had sold some tamarack poles in Millie, but had no money. She gave him a dollar.

When Mrs. Krebs, next witness, took the stand, Mrs. Kasal stood up.

Mrs. Kasal shouting at him, said Mrs. Stalberg, of Alibre, said Mrs. Kasal stayed with her all night on June 16.

When Constable Stuart, R.C.M.P., was called, Mr. McCallum interrupted proceedings to ask for an adjournment, which was granted.

and Hugh Calais MacDonald, K.C., appeared for the defence. Moliner's body was found buried in a manure pile on his farm on June 27 by R.C.M.P. who were investigating his disappearance about three weeks previously. A coroner's inquest in the morning delivered a verdict of "death by a blow" to the head from a blunt instrument in the hands of a person or persons unknown.

Only during the hearing was the accused's unrefuted claim broken when he testified his wife asked to speak out of turn. When Mrs. M. Moliner, his wife's mother, took the stand, Mrs. Kasal rose from the back bench where she was sitting and advanced toward the witness stand. In sudden alarm Kasal yelled from the counsel table: "Go back and sit down—keep your mouth shut!"

SHOW GRAIN TICKETS

Charles W. Minnow, grain buyer at Warburg, first witness on the stand, identified two grain storage tickets he gave Moliner on June 8 and 9. The crown intends to show that these tickets were given to Kasal to the Edmonton office.

The grain evidence was given by Post mortem evidence was given by Dr. H. B. S. (Frank) Leduc, H. B. Galt, Bretton and others, who testified to the presence of sulphur to a man he believed to be the accused. The transaction was confirmed by Harry Wilson, who said he had been present.

Mr. Krebs, former in the Regina district and father-in-law of accused, said the latter stayed at his home occasionally in June. He had made a trip southeast of Kananaskis with some tamarack poles on June 6. He did not visit Kasal's place all around this time.

INQUIRED FOR POLICE

James Horvath, Bretton farmer, said Kasal was at his place on June 17. Archie Blake, another Bretton farmer, said accused dug a cellar on his place on June 8, aided by T. McCartney but was not there on June 11. Kasal had worked on his farm on June 14 and he had worked at Kasal's the next day.

Alfred McCartney said he had worked on Blake's cellar on June 17, 19 and part of the 19th. He was not there on June 11 and did not see accused on that day.

Clarence Jamieson, clerk in his father's hardware store at Bretton, who testified he had sold accused a box of 22 shells on June 21, said accused inquired on that occasion whether the policeman was home.

He had replied the officer was away.

Mrs. Dorothy Myles said Mrs. Kasal had stayed with her on June 19 to look after the children and had stayed there again on June 20.

Witness identified clothes worn by accused, blue pants, a white shirt and yellow sweater.

Mrs. Frances Murdy said accused was at her house on June 11 or 12 stating he had sold some tamarack poles in Millie, but had no money. She gave him a dollar.

When Mrs. Krebs, next witness, took the stand, Mrs. Kasal stood up. Kasal shouting at him, said Mrs. Stalberg, of Alibre, said Mrs. Kasal stayed with her all night on June 16.

When Constable Stuart, R.C.M.P., was called, Mr. McCallum interrupted proceedings to ask for an adjournment, which was granted.

WINS HIS BET BUT DIES ON TENTH DRINK

GARFIELD, N. J., July 16.—Conrad Duvak, 47, was in a boastful mood. He challenged anyone at the bar in Andrew Zerk's cafe to bet him he could not drink 10 glasses of beer without stopping.

The bet was taken, the loser to pay for the drinks. Duvak finished off the first seven in quick succession, but at the eighth he slowed down noticeably. When he finished the last glass he turned away from the bar with an ill look on his face and collapsed.

Friends rushed him to hospital, where he was pronounced dead on arrival.

Femals Nutists Get Four Months

NEEDON, July 17.—Auntie Bockoff and Nastina Atishnikoff, Dookhobor women from Shornice, B.C., pleaded guilty in British Columbia provincial police court here today to a charge of appearing in the nude and were sentenced to two years, less one day, general servitude. They will be imprisoned in Okalla jail.

Liberal Leads In Vote Count

REGINA, July 17.—Virtually assured of his election, Guy H. Hummel, Liberal member-elect for Last Mountain constituency, last night stood 27 votes ahead of Jacob Benoit, C.C.F. candidate, in the official report.

A vaccine for treatment of rheumatism was discovered by Dr. Benjamin J. Clavson of the University of Minnesota medical school.

Unusual Ferris Wheels Here

The only four-in-line giant ferris wheels in the world are in Edmonton for the Exhibition, at another novel feature of the Royal American Shows. They are the invention of Curtis Velde, one of the owners of the group of attractions, and make up the "back end" of the moving midway of the world's largest amusement enterprise. While fabricated into one unit each wheel is independent of the others in operation. These wheels run at high speed and will accommodate 140 passengers simultaneously.

IS CARBID FEATURE

The Alexander, won by Louis Diamond Burke four years ago was the only carbid feature for the Empire entrants today but several others were decided.

Canadian scoring in the Alexander (possible 70) showing 280, 240, 400 yards and a total.

SEARCH FOR LAD LOST FOUR DAYS IS INTENSIFIED

Eccentric Suspected Earlier of Abduction Held Pending Further Developments in Case.

HARTSDALE, N.Y., July 17.—An eccentric pedlar, who frightened bicyclists in this section the day Bobby Connor disappeared was ordered held last night for further investigation after he had been questioned in the home of the missing child, where he faced Bobby's father.

STUMBLING STORY

Harry Lee Forrester, 31, the pedlar, who was arrested last night, said he had never seen the child or knew what had happened to him.

He has certainly implied himself enough to be held overnight, said Capt. Philip McQuillen of the Hartsdale police.

STILL MYSTERY

Four days after Bobby disappeared from the home of his parents there was no known evidence to indicate whether the lad was alive or dead.

Although the theory of kidnapping gradually faded, fresh emphasis in the search was given Monday with the arrival of a troop of state police.

On July 5, the chief justice of Canada was questioned by the Dominion government to conduct such an inquiry.

Undermining The Supreme Court Of Canada

By R. T. ELLIOTT, K.C.

Appointing the chief justice of the Supreme Court of Canada to require uniformed charges against the Right Honourable Arthur Meighen, government leader in the Senate of Canada, is one of the most unfortunate mistakes made by the Bennett administration.

The Supreme Court of Canada is the High Court of Appeal for Canada, a national institution in the highest sense, and the chief justice of that court, and every member of that court, should be absolutely kept free from politics and political investigations. No one could ever imagine the chief justice of the Supreme Court of the United States being appointed to engage in political charges against a United States Senator.

The Senate of Canada has a complete jurisdiction to deal with charges against any of its members. When charges were brought against a Liberal Senator in the first year of the Bennett administration there was no suggestion of appointing the chief justice of the Supreme Court of Canada to engage in them. The Senate attempted to do its own business, and in the event of any defined charges being brought against any other of its members, the Senate should attend to its own business again.

There cannot fail to be a most regrettable impression made upon the public mind by a theory that charges against a Liberal will be dealt with by the Senate itself, but charges against a Conservative will be sent to the chief justice of the Supreme Court of Canada for enquiry. The public mind assumes a reason for everything.

No importance should be attached to the rumour, already in circulation, to the effect that the Conservative administration appointed the chief justice of Canada in order to forestall and nip in the bud the appointment of another conservative by the Liberal government of Ontario to engage in the same charges.

In the first place the Governor General in Council would not be a party to such a scheme; and in the second place the new government of Ontario has absolute power to hold all the enquiry it likes; and in the event of any charges being brought against any political charges.

The Right Honourable Arthur Meighen is a seasoned campaigner and fully able to look out for himself; and once the matter was brought directly to his attention, would probably agree that it would be most unfortunate to have any member of the Supreme Court of Canada brought into contact with any political charges.

From every public standpoint it is essential that the chief justice of Canada be released from any obligation, which whatever its result, cannot be regarded as a large number of people throughout Canada. The Supreme Court of Canada should be held sacredly free from the slightest risk of such a condition.

can take it, he drives wooden plugs through his nose and forehead through his cheeks. He flinches and screams into his chest and perspiration beads on his forehead. He is then released and again, until his nose is a mass of raised welts running in fantastic and somewhat grotesque patterns.

Today I saw a spear dance which started out, like musical comedy, with a few dances and songs. Men whirled and plumed their weapons into, into the ground and into the air. They danced and sang. At one stage, 25 spears were held up in the air as they could, then galloped pell-mell over their heads, plumed them on the ground and rushed back. Without halting to take a breath, they let fly again, and every spear plunged once more into the ground.

This went on with a growing ferocity until the boys worked themselves into a state of intense excitement, each with the spear. In ten minutes the ground looked like the billiard table. One boy, who was white and brown, and when the spear hit his forehead, he bolted to get his wounds dressed. He then lay flat on his back, and every spear plunged once more into the ground.
